

Open - encouraging spiritual growth through understanding and tolerance of others viewpoints

Active - seeking God's desire for peace, justice and liberation from oppression throughout the Bible and life of Jesus, and responding to God's call for conversion of self and transformation of society

70% Recycled, 30% plantation paper

Ecumenical - Welcoming and affirming members from all denominations and valuing the rich diversity of Christian traditions and those of other faiths, while seeking unity in prayer and action.

Critical - looking to theology, the sciences and the humanities to provide new perspectives on faith