

AUSTRALIAN STUDENT CHRISTIAN
MOVEMENT

NATIONAL CONFERENCE

Loving our neighbours as ourselves

A time for exploring faith's outer and inner journeys.

8—11 July, 2003

at St Francis' College, Brisbane.

The Australian Student Christian Movement (ASCM) is an ecumenical Christian movement that encourages students to respond to Jesus' vision of the kingdom of God. The ASCM stands for a Christian faith that:

- seeks to relate Christian faith to life
- seeks to strengthen ties amongst Christians
- seeks Jesus' gospel commitment to justice
- seeks to enrich human relationships
- is committed to caring for the created world

A sample of the program includes:

- A Christian's journey into contemporary Indonesia
Rev. Professor James Haire (President, Uniting Church)
- Fresh ways of responding to the Christian scriptures
- Nurturing our inner faith
Dr Patrick Oliver (Australian Catholic University)
- Massage and Christian meditation
(a workshop)

Full program details available from the ASCM website:

www.ascm.org.au

To register follow the email address from:

www.ascm.org.au/brisbane

All interested students are welcome!