

Who is my neighbour?

Crossing boundaries of campus and country

Calling all students: ASCM invites you to a buffet meal and discussion night in the city.

Make new friends with Australian and International students – including students from East Timor, who will talk about the issues facing their country.

When: Friday 7 March at 6:30pm (for 7:00pm)

Where: Victoria University Student Lounge (VU Queen Street campus, enter off Little Lonsdale St).

Hosted by the Australian Student Christian Movement (ASCM) – an organisation of students with a 112 year history of being Open, Ecumenical, Active and Critical.

Entry is free and open to all students. If possible, please let us know you're coming: contact Claudine on 0418 592 269 or claudinec@gmail.com
